

And I will live.

And I will live fully.

For all my people who cannot.

Anymore.

Because you killed them.

I will live.

And I will live massively.

For all the ones like me.

But rejected at the border.

I will live.

And I will live with flying colours.

For all the glowing faces.

Seperated from their beloved.

I will live.

And I will live the mostest.

For the unborns.

Because I survived.
